

Tennis Professionals

Irene Sukner - USPTA Certified Tennis Professional

Irene is responsible for teaching lessons and clinics. She was at the Youth Sports School in Lvov, Ukraine from 1983-1992 where she was a tennis coach, instructor and tournament organizer. She received the “Champion Teacher” award for training two USSR tennis champions. Irene began teaching in the Pittsburgh area at the Edgewood Racquet Club in 1992. She was a valued instructor at Oxford Athletic Club since 1996 and a welcomed addition to Club 4 Life. Irene focuses on technique when conducting her lessons.

“Irene knows how and when to challenge my daughter who has come a long way since working with her.”

#

Joe D'Angelo - USPTA Certified Tennis Professional

Joe has been teaching at The Club Sport and Health since 2003. Before that Joe was Assistant Tennis Pro at Oglebay Park from 2001-2003. Joe attended both the University of Toledo and University of Steubenville and graduated from there with a B. S. in Business Management. As a player Joe was ranked 13th nationally in 45's doubles and #1 in Middle States in Mixed 45's twice.

“I really enjoy teaching the sport and working with kids. I feel lucky to be able to make a living doing what I love.”

Bob Phillips - USPTA Certified Tennis Professional

Bob brings a wealth of tennis teaching experience to The Club. He has dedicated his career to providing the highest quality of tennis instruction to players of all ages in Westmoreland, Allegheny, and Indiana counties. Formerly, Bob served as the Tennis Director and Head Tennis Pro at Arnold Palmer's Country Club in Latrobe, PA. He has also served as the Men's Tennis Coach at St. Francis University of Pennsylvania and at the University of Pittsburgh at Greensburg. Additionally, Bob has worked as a Contributing Writer for Tennis magazine, where he wrote feature articles and editorials, interviewed ATP players and coaches, and covered the ATP Masters Series Championships in Cincinnati.

Mike Fabian - Assistant Tennis Professional

Mike was the Team Captain and a three-year starter for the Murrysville High School Boy's Tennis Team. He has served as an Assistant Tennis Pro for the Murrysville Parks and Recreation Summer Tennis Clinics since 2010. Mike is currently attending Duquesne University.

David Weinstein – Tennis Professional

David spent the last three years as Assistant Manager of Pittsburgh Indoor Tennis Club, where he also taught clinics and private lessons as an Instructor. A lifelong tennis enthusiast, He was WPIAL District doubles champion twice in HS, and while at the University of Pittsburgh ran clinics as a Recreational Instructor at National Indoor Tennis (NIT 1984-87), as well as teaching clinics at Highland Park during the past few summers. In addition to tennis, David has worked on nearly 40 films and 100's of TV commercials as a part of the Pittsburgh Film & Television Industry for more than 20 years. He is also a Stained Glass Mosaic Artist you can find by googling 'Wino Mosaics'.

